VILLAGE NEWS

Sheila Clarke

It was with sadness that the Parish Council heard of the passing of Sheila Clark.

Sheila, along with Ray Merchant and others, founded the group campaigning for safer roads and pavements in Timsbury.

Her common-sense approach was highly valued by the Parish Council which she served faithfully for many years, only retiring through ill health.

She will be sorely missed by the Parish Councillors and the many people in the village who knew her.

Our condolences go to her family and friends. You can read more about her in an article, written by her daughter Jill Clarke, on page 15.

Neighbourhood Plice

The Avon and Somerset Police Neighbourhood Team hold their beat surgeries every eight weeks with the next one being 17th November from 7.00pm to 7.40pm in the Conygre Hall Car Park.

These drop-in sessions are a great chance to meet the Neighbourhood Policing Team, chat about what's happening locally, and share any concerns you might have.

Residents are reminded that any incidences of anti-social behaviour should be reported to the Police using 101. Every report helps build a clearer picture of what's going on, enabling the team to understand the scale of issues and respond effectively.

RECENTLY ELECTED PARISH COUNCILLORS

Richard Thomas

Born in Pembrokeshire and having studied as a Civil Engineer at Imperial College in London, Richard has worked on major construction projects around the UK including the highly acclaimed Gunwharf Quays project in Portsmouth, and a period of time in the Middle East.

He and his wife Judith moved to Timsbury 40 years ago. During that time, they have raised two successful children. Judith has been a governor of the school, has continued with her work in the food industry, and has carried out a lot of voluntary work both within the community and in Bath.

Having now retired Richard has free time and with his experience in planning, contract law and general property development he believes he can make a real contribution to the running of the village.

He is passionate about retaining the heart and culture of the village despite the pressure of large-scale development.

Deborah Griffin

Deborah and her husband have been in Timsbury for the past 20 years. Coming here was her first experience of living in the countryside, she loved it and has continued to enjoy it both with walks and with the Timsbury Trotters.

Now retired from HR work at the University of Bath she works two days a week at Fillerup, the zero waste refill shop in Radstock. This leaves time for her involvement with the monthly Village Market and the project to create a Neighbourhood Plan for Timsbury which she hopes will result in a positive collective vision for the area.

Dan Hilton

Dan works in digital transformation and lives in one of the newly-built homes at Upper Conygre. He moved to the village with his family 13 years ago and became a governor while his children attended St Mary's Primary School.

The children now spend their week with their mother in Devon returning to Timsbury at weekends.

An exercise enthusiast, he spends much of his leisure time at the Crossfit Gym in Bath and on the Five Arches Parkrun along the Greenway between Radstock and Midsomer Norton. Having joined the Parish Council he now hopes some time can be devoted to achieving a positive outcome for the village at a time of impending change.

GROW TIMSBURY

By The Grow Timsbury Team

Can it really be time for the Grow Timsbury Festive Market again? Well we suppose all those mince pies and chocolate oranges, filling the local co-op shelves, are a good indicator, but we promise that our stall holders will be offering you some extra special seasonal treats.

This year our Festive (Indoor) Market will be on Saturday 28th November 10.00am - 2.00pm

All the regular traders will be there with their fine local produce and, in addition, there will be some new and occasional stall holders, who are sure to give you bright ideas for Christmas treats and gifts.

As in previous years the delicious 'Holly Made Cakes' will be running the café, and there will be a Children's Activity Area, which will offer some amusement for the little ones.

LISTEN OUT for the local musicians, who will be adding to the festive vibe throughout the morning. And LOOK OUT in this newsletter for the advertisement giving full details for booking the Festive Workshops. This year there will be Wreath Making and a Festive Fabric workshop.

We're looking forward to seeing you, so please do save the date in your diaries.

A special message to our 'best friends'. As you know, the Conygre Hall gets very crowded at the Festive Market and we are keen to make sure both you and all the shoppers are kept safe, especially people with disabilities and young children.

Please would you kindly ask your owner to either not bring you with them, or find family or a friend who will look after you outside whilst they are shopping. Thank you

ST MARY'S PRIMARY SCHOOL PTA

St Mary's School would like to say a HUGE thank you to Mr Terry Fisher for his ongoing very kind and generous donations to the school. His donations have funded multiple fantastic improvements at the school over the past few years and most recently his kind donations alongside PTA fundraising have provided new play equipment for the ever-expanding Hedgehog Nursery area. The equipment allows little ones to explore, play safely and learn those improvement gross motor skills.

In recent years he has funded a fantastic Forest School structure to enable children to spend more time learning outside and a lovely book barn that provides a wonderful reading area for children.

Mr Fisher is a proud member of the Timsbury community having lived in the village for his entire life. He attended the school himself in the 1940s when it was a secondary school. We are very grateful for his donations!

If you or a business would like to donate to the school whether it is monetary funds or valuable skills we would love to hear from you. We are so grateful for the ongoing support the school receives. You can contact the school office on: 01761 470245 or email the PTA on: stmarysschooltimsburypta@gmail.com

IN MEMORY OF SHEILA CLARKE

By Jill Clarke

Well, I don't know where to start, other than she has left a creator of a hole in all our lives.

Let me fill you in a little about her. For those that don't know, Mum, trained to be a teacher, that's where she met Dad, (Roly, Roland, Teach), many moons ago. She was the youngest infant school deputy head in Avon where she would take me as a tiny baby to keep the children quiet in class. Mum worked tirelessly within the world of adult education, and ended up being Head of Faculty for Adult Education in South Bristol College and when it merged with Brunel Tech, she took the opportunity to take redundancy.

Mum had a spell with Knightstone Housing, where she used to "Sprinkle Stardust" as she put it. She would help and encourage Knightstone tenants to enrol on to courses that enabled them to better themselves in life.

Mum also worked for Soundwell college, in the Motor Mechanics faculty in Parkway. She was learning support to the lads and the odd ladette. She certainly learnt a lot about engines. She finally took the opportunity of early retirement when Edward, her first grandson was born and both mum and dad relished in looking after him.

Mum now had more free time so threw herself into helping the village of Timsbury. She was the Chair for the Timsbury Road Safety, which met at Timsbury Cheshire Home and included some of the residents. This was important to her and they helped do a survey of the village for Timsbury residents who were less able bodied to see how easy it was to move around the village. Some of her recommendations have now been implemented. She was on the Parish Council for several years. She also had a group of volunteers start up 'Timsbury Together'. This was an information group to promote village activities and groups, which she led. She also organised public events to help promote those village groups. Things were doing well then Covid hit.

Back in 2021 mum was diagnosed with heart issues, then about 4 years ago she just couldn't shake a chest infection. Doctor Dewer sent her for x-rays which sadly confirmed she had lung cancer. She also had a dose of breast cancer too. If it hadn't been for Doctor Dewer we would lost mum several years ago: so thank you Nicola.

Working in Education meant she had long summers. Mum and Dad were keen caravaners, and we found a fabulous campsite in France, Camping Renardieres, in the Vendee. Probably for the best part of 40 years they went annually, sometimes more, meeting up with lots of English friends who did the same thing. At one point they had 2 caravans, one in the UK and one in France. To this day the friends they have made have been truly special ones.

Mum and Dad have lived in Timsbury for over 40 years. They have made some truly amazing friends and have helped organise some memorable activities, various Queens celebrations, VE Day and not to mention their beloved Petanque, (boules to you and me). There have been so many fancy dress parties up and down Southlands Drive too.

No words can really express what a truly lovely, caring, warm person our mum was. She really has touched so many people's souls.

Thank you, Mum, for being you. You have been a fabulous role model and we hope we turn out as good as you. We love you now and always will. God Bless, Sleep tight.

FARMBOROUGH FLORAL ART

By Elizabeth Bence

Farmborough Floral Art continued their Diamond Anniversary year celebrations in October by welcoming Arnaud Metairie, the French florist, to the club.

He wowed us all with his fabulous demonstration of floral arrangements using beautiful material including roses from Ecuador. His very amusing stories about his life and work kept us all entertained, with a lucky few of us taking home one of his arrangements.

To finish our year of celebrations we look forward to having Jacqui Arnold from Kent with us for our Christmas Open Evening later in October in the Conygre hall. More about this next month.

ASPECTS OF THE HISTORY OF SOME HERITAGE BUILDINGS IN TIMSBURY

By Larry Cunningham

Crock Barton

Crock Barton was built about 1700 making it one of the oldest structures in Timsbury. It was originally four households in a short, uniform terrace with washrooms at each end. The block had a large field which was divided into four gardens separated by footpaths. There was a well in the garden and later a public water tap at the western end. It's not been possible to throw any light on the meaning of Crock Barton other than that Barton can refer to an area surrounded by, or adjacent to farm buildings. This would apply as the building is close to Home Farm.

The building is particularly tall relative to its surroundings. It is thought that it was used for flax weaving. Throughout the early and mid-18th century, most flax was processed in workers' homes. The entire family was often involved: women and children handled the arduous tasks of preparing the flax and spinning the yarn, while men typically operated the looms for weaving. This system was labour-intensive and it often took multiple spinners to produce enough yarn to keep one weaver occupied. The looms were in the rooms (called garrets) on the top floor and at one time they were all inter-connected. The height of the building meant that incoming light was maximised. By the late 18th century, technological innovations began to shift production to mills and factories.

In 1784 the building was owned by Messrs Mogg and Crang. This was Jacob Mogg of High Littleton and John Crang of Pitfour House. Both were actively involved in developing coal mining in Timsbury in the late 18th century, including Upper Conygre Pit.

By the time of the Tithe Map of 1838 the building was owned by the Manor Company and described as four tenements and garden occupied by George Sperring (a labourer), Mary Bridges (living with her son who was a coal miner), James James (a weigher at a local pit) and Phillis Box (a pauper living with her son William, a coal miner).

In 1911 the male heads of the households were all employed in coal mining and the block was owned by Frances Anne Hawtin of 10 Coronation Road, Bristol. Before World War II Joseph Holbrook acquired Home Farm and Crock Barton, but by the 1960s two households in the block were empty and used to house chickens from Home Farm. By the 1980s the whole building had been derelict for some years. In 1985 it was designated Grade II listed and was subsequently owned by two architects who restored the building and converted it into two households.

BUSY BEANS- YOUR LOCAL FRIENDLY TAXI SERVICE

By Adam and Chloe Bean

You may have spotted Busy Beans out and about around Timsbury and the surrounding villages recently, so we thought we would introduce ourselves and tell you a little bit about how Busy Beans came about.

We are a local husband-and-wife team based right here in Timsbury, and Busy Beans is part of our Busy Lizzie Home Care family. The idea for Busy Beans actually came from our home care clients. We would have clients who had waited four or five months for an important hospital appointment, only to struggle to find a wheelchair-accessible taxi that they could book in advance. Being told to ring on the morning of the appointment just wasn't practical. When you've waited months for an appointment, you want the reassurance of knowing your transport is booked and someone reliable will be there to pick you up. We realised there was a real need for something different locally - and that's where Busy Beans began.

Our vehicle is fully wheelchair accessible, allowing passengers to remain safely in their wheelchair for the journey. We can help with trips to hospital and GP appointments, the hairdressers, care homes, social visits and days out. We can also collect people from hospital when they're ready to come home.

But one thing we really want local people to know is that Busy Beans isn't just for wheelchair users! We have a five-seat vehicle, so we're also your local pre-booked taxi service for everyday journeys. You might need an airport run, transport to a wedding or family occasion, a lift out for dinner, or perhaps you're planning a night out and simply want the reassurance of knowing that you've already got a safe and reliable lift home.

We operate as a pre-booked service, which means your journey can be arranged in advance and you'll be given a quote beforehand. Our bills are sent by invoice via email, keeping everything simple and straightforward.

Most importantly, we are local people providing a service for our local community. We live in Timsbury, we know the area, and we genuinely hope Busy Beans will become a name that local people, families, care homes and healthcare professionals know they can rely on. We hope to become your trusted, friendly and reliable local taxi service, and we look forward to seeing lots of familiar faces along the way.

TABOR RINGERS AGM REPORT

By Dianne Carter

The Tabor Ringers recently held their Annual General Meeting, at which there was only one change of officer.

In her report, Conductor Ms Angie Poole noted that the team had performed at a greater number of events this year, with a wide variety of audiences and venues. This was echoed by the Secretary, Mrs Barb Spalding, who confirmed that the group had undertaken more engagements than the previous year and that bookings for the new Season are already coming in. December is shaping up to be particularly busy.

Both officers expressed their thanks to St Mary's Church, Timsbury, for providing the Ringers with a base following the closure of Tabor Church.

A change of role was agreed during the meeting: Mrs Mary Reeves has taken on the position of Booking Officer, relieving Barb of some of her duties as she requested. Mary can be contacted on (01761) 472732.

TIMSBURY THEATRE GROUP

By Peter Buchanan

Fee Fi Fo Fum – panto season has now come!

The Conygre Hall is now a hive of activity on Tuesday and Thursday evenings as rehearsals continue for this year's pantomime, "Jack and the Beanstalk" by Ben Crocker. Ben's award-winning script delivers a cracking adventure story along with some great twists on established panto favourites including a hilarious milking routine, a ghost scene ("it's behind you!") and a dancing tree!

Neil Moon leads the cast and the comedy as Dame Trot, helped (or maybe not!) by Simple Sam, played by Lilia Comer who took the title role in our July production of "Peter Pan". The principal boy part of the dame's son Jack is in the very capable hands of Jo Jewell, an extremely busy lady as she is also our choreographer and musical director! Other main roles are taken by Emma Cowles, Jo Hickes, Mike Newman and Julie Smith, with James Greenaway pulling all the strings as director.
While the cast have been rehearsing their scenes on the floor of the hall, our very talented painting crew have occupied the stage, creating the best set of backcloths we've seen in many years - the latest one is shown in the accompanying picture. All in all, a thoroughly entertaining show is in prospect, continuing the great tradition of Timsbury pantomimes.

"Jack and the Beanstalk" will be on stage at the Conygre Hall for five performances from Wednesday 16th to Saturday 19th December, weekdays at 7.30pm, Saturday at 2.00pm and 6.00pm. Ticket prices are the same as last year - adult £12, child £8, family (2+2 or 1+3) £35. Tickets are on sale now – box office at www.ticketsource.com/timsbury-theatre-group

We're currently meeting every Tuesday and Thursday evening at the Conygre Hall and we're keen to welcome anyone to help us continue the great tradition of amateur theatre in Timsbury. If you'd like to get involved in any capacity, acting or backstage, come along to the hall or contact James Greenaway (07523 058186), Peter Crooke (01761 434479), Peter Buchanan (07808 724241), visit our website timsburytheatre.co.uk or check us out on social media.

TIMSBURY NEIGHBOURHOOD PLAN UPDATE

By Paul Carroll

I am pleased to give you this update on the progress of the Neighbourhood Plan Steering Group delivering a plan for the future of our village.

By the time you are reading this article our Community Engagement survey will have been returned by you and the analysis of results underway perhaps even some early results published on the Timsbury Rocks Facebook group. A big Thank You to everyone who took part, we had over 400 responses and the QR code helped with over 130 digital replies. The email address; haveyoursay@futuretimsbury.org.uk is still live and will continue to be available for you to contact us as a group. Now the Parish Council has agreed the use of the Timsbury Parish website we shall also place updates on there.

At the Parish Council meeting in October the Steering Group detailed the progress so far and updated the project timeline. We are now going to write up reports and craft the key areas of interest and development for the village informing the future look and surrounds of the village. In the latter stages the completed plan must go forward to BANES and also an inspector for scrutiny and approval. Despite our work we have no control over the examination and validation phase. Only once it has passed these stages will the village be asked to have another look and approve its adoption.

The Landscape Character Assessment has been commissioned with a company called HDA, who are also doing work locally with other villages. Again, on completion this will inform our working and the words in the Neighbourhood Plan.

As part of the Built Environment and Heritage Group work a proposed Timsbury Design Code had been created and this will sit within the Neighbourhood Plan. This Timsbury Design Code is only at version 8 and will be improved even further however, this was placed before the Parish Council in October and was endorsed in its current form and will be published on the village website. This is an important step as BANES Planning Team will acknowledge the document and even ask developers to follow it. Our first piece of influence for the future!

To finish, thank you again for the completion of the survey. and we will tell you the results once we have analysed them.

TIMSBURY WI

By Nicola Carroll

Timsbury WI are a small, friendly group who meet in the Conygre hall on the first Thursday of the month, our next meeting is November 5th

We have been hosting a bra collection point for just over a year with the target of reaching 1000 bras for recycling. In September our big pink collection box to the Avon Federation annual meeting in Weston-super-Mare, we were delighted that it was filled to overflowing with almost 300 bras. These were added to the local collection gave a total of 405 bras to be sent to the charity "Against Breast Cancer". This means we have well exceeded our initial target and it looks like we will will be pushing for another 1000. The box is back home in the Conygre Hall if you would like to make a donation, the ladies will be happy to box them up.

Whilst boxing them up a rough tally was made of the number of new- tags on or packaged garments, this came to 10%. A further 8% appeared to be new or unworn, which does suggest that some of us are spending our hard earned money on unwearable underwear. These have been packed into four large boxes with a combined weight of 37Kg, its sobering to think that most of this would have found its way to land fill.

Timsbury WI is a women only group, our small informal meetings usually end with a social session where we can chat and catch up with each and get to know new faces whilst sampling cake and other goodies.

Visitors and new members are always welcome, for a small fee. For more information about our group check out our facebook page or contact:

TIMSBURY GARDENING CLUB

By Graham Nicholls

For our October meeting we welcomed Colin Higgins, commonly known as 'Higgy', who gave us as lovely talk on 'Nature as Your Neighbour' or Gardening for wildlife as he preferred to call it.

He showed his garden as a wild uncultivated plot when he first moved in and then as the result of several years of hard work bringing it up to the present standard and then showed how he had added a number of things to attract wildlife.

Water is very important from just a small saucer where wildlife can drink and bathe to a pond that will attract the various amphibians such as toads, frogs, newts, slow worms, dragonflies and damselflies. Although my pond is now covered with duck weed I saw a slow worm snaking its way across on top. Remember you must have an exit point to enable wild life to get out of the pond but how you treat the herons that are likely to land looking for fish is up to you.

Birds are a welcome attraction and although there is a natural larder in the garden with insects on the flowers most of us feed them with fat balls, mixed seeds and peanuts from around October to Spring. This can bring in a wonderful selection of birds, Blackbirds, I love their singing during mating time, and Goldfinches appear regularly to feed on Nyjer seed. However remember to clean the feeders weekly if possible, just a swill out with soapy water will do the trick.

There are a great many flowers that will bring butterflies to your garden both annual and perennial. One plant that is often looked down on is the Buddleia. Yes it does throw its seed around but they come in a variety of colours and you can always pull up the seedlings. Butterflies also love fruit so it's worth growing a small fruit tree to encourage them to your garden. Moths can also appear and if you find a large group of caterpillars on your fuchsias don't despair as they will usually turn into the lovely Elephant Hawk moth. My apologies to keen fuchsia growers. They will also flock to the Willow herb.

Pollenators are a must in every garden, as without them we will have no fruit,veg or flower hybrids. It's worth looking out for plants whose flowers are known to attract bees. Foxgloves, Crocus, Sedum and Hellebore are just a few. You can buy collections of plants that are bee friendly. Higgy spoke about log piles that encourage sloworms and hedghogs although he said for some reason hedgehogs seem to be getting scarce now.

He finally showed his present garden which although still lovely has a wide range of nature attractions area and told us to remember that the garden rubbish that we might hate is an important area for the lowest of the garden chain that is the invertebrates. They eat your rubbish.

SWIFTS

By Mark Foster

Swifts are one of the UK's most extraordinary summer visitors, arriving each year from their wintering grounds in sub-saharan Africa. They have been visiting Britain for thousands of years, with written records dating back to at least the Middle Ages, when their screaming flocks were already a familiar sign of early summer. Typically, swifts reach the UK in early May and depart by early August, spending barely three months here to breed before beginning their long migration south.

Despite their iconic status, UK swift populations have declined sharply. According to long-term monitoring, numbers have fallen by more than 60% since the mid1990s. This decline led to the common swift (Apus apus) being placed on the UK Red List of Birds of Conservation Concern, meaning it is considered at risk of local extinction. The primary cause is the loss of nesting sites. Swifts traditionally nest in small gaps under roof tiles, in eaves, or in cracks in old buildings. Modern renovations, roof replacements, and tightly sealed new builds have removed many of these vital spaces. Reduced insect abundance, driven by habitat loss and pesticide use, also contributes to their struggle.

Homeowners can play a crucial role in reversing this decline. Installing swift nest boxes—ideally at least 5 metres above ground, with a clear flight path—is one of the most effective interventions. Purpose-built swift bricks, now required in some new developments, offer a permanent nesting cavity within the structure of a house. There are also nest boxes that can be cut into and fitted snugly within a soffit beneath the eaves. Creating a wildlife friendly garden also helps: avoiding pesticides, allowing patches of long grass, and planting nectar -rich flowers all support the flying insects swifts depend on. Finally, protecting existing nest sites during building work is essential; once swifts adopt a site, they return to it year after year.

With small, thoughtful changes, homeowners can help ensure that the summer sky continues to ring with the sound of swifts for generations to come.

TIMSBURY CRICKET PRESENTATION NIGHT 2026

By Malcolm Tucker

Chairman Ben Hosford looked back on another enjoyable year when Timsbury Cricket Club held its annual presentation night at the clubroom. He called it a challenging season but said that there remained a great atmosphere around the club. The youth section was progressing well and had held a vibrant presentation night . The regeneration of the patio under the leadership of club captain Jesse Bishop had proved an even greater success than had been anticipated and Hosford said it was encouraging to see so many villagers coming to support the team. The re-launch of the Sunday team had been a pleasant development and the support of the social nights had seen everyone pulling in the right direction.

The club's under 19s had done well in their Friday night encounters and Josh Barlass who captained the side looked back on some very encouraging results. He said that everyone had contributed and had gelled well as a team.

Third team captain Chris Rawlings said that there had been a definite improvement this year and stressed that the team had been competitive in most games. The atmosphere in the side was a very happy one and nine players had made their senior debuts. He said that a number of fathers had appeared with their sons and felt that this was what third team cricket was all about. The outstanding achievement for the thirds came in the final game of the season against Whitchurch when Rawlings and Steve Ford enjoyed a record breaking partnership of 196. For the second year running Matt Ball was voted third team player of the year.

The second team endured a difficult season in Division 6 of the Bristol and District League and suffered relegation . Dan Hill said that availability remained a problem but he was pleased to see the development of the young players in the squad. Despite a lack of good results the spirit in the team remained buoyant. Tom Parfitt was rewarded for some outstanding bowling returns by being named the second team player of the year.

First team captain Jesse Bishop said that some may say it was a season to forget but he would rather see it as a season to remember after the side who had looked destined for relegation going into the second half of the campaign strung five straight wins together to escape the drop. He felt it showed the character of the team who so badly wanted to win. The performance of Mark Sage with a century and undefeated 98 had proved pivotal and the opening partnerships between himself and Gary Pearcy who notched up a maiden century and was voted first team player of the year had been central to the improved results. He praised the increasing all-round influence of Freddie Hosford who had also organised the Sunday fixtures while Martin Richards had been leading wicket taker with 22 victims. In conclusion Bishop said he was very proud to be skipper of Timsbury and hoped to continue in the role.

At the close followers were presented to a number of the ladies who had supported the club in lots of different ways.
